CONTENTS

COVER: On July 1, 1958, inspection and grading services for fishery products became the responsibility of the U. S. Department of the Interior. Regulations to govern the grading and inspection services as a function of the Department of the Interior were adopted by that Department on June 30. Inspection and certification guarantees quality and marketing confidence. (Also see page 16.)

TROUT:

"Freezing at World's Largest Trout Hatcher," article, Quick Frozen Foods, November 1957, pp. 50-51, 117, illus., printed. Quick Frozen Foods, E. W. Williams Publications, 82 Wall St., New York 5, N. Y. This article describes the process of freezing trout at the world's largest trout hatchery. Trout are caught, dressed, and placed in the freezer within 30 minutes. The trout are seined while still alive and are placed into individual grading boxes. After evisceration and dressing, the fish are placed on trays and then loaded on carts and rolled to the sharp freezer at -50° F. They are glazed with 3 coats of ice, then packaged and carried to the storage room.
